THANK YOU PARENTS, FOR FOSTERING
Tammara Madeja is the conductor of the Potsdam Community Chorus at the Crane School of Music where she is also the early field experience coordinator. Mrs. Madeja served on the vocal music staff of Crane Youth Music for over a decade and has conducted the Women’s Chorus for many of those years. Mrs. Madeja has been the choral director at Potsdam High School since 1992. Her ensembles have received consistently high honors at the New York State School Music Association Major Organization Contest including several Level 6 Gold with Distinction awards. Potsdam High School’s select chorus, Canta Sera Chamber Singers, was invited to sing for the New York conference of the American Choral Directors Association in October 2011. Additionally, Potsdam High School choral ensembles have performed for the New York State School Boards Convention and the New York Board of Regents. Mrs. Madeja currently serves as the Assistant Choral Chairperson for the New York State School Music Association. She served as the Zone 5 representative to NYSSMA from 2004-2010, NYSSMA voice chair from 2010-2012 and is a certified All-State vocal solo adjudicator. Mrs. Madeja has presented clinics at regional and state music conferences. She received her B.S. and M.S. degrees in music education from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Mrs. Madeja is a frequent soloist and has performed lead roles with the Illinois Opera Theater and was a

Dr. Troy Robertson

"Dr. Troy Robertson is the Director of Choirs at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas, where he conducts University Singers, Women’s Select Ensemble, Texan Gentlemen, and Chamber Choir. He is also the conductor and artistic director of the Cross Timbers Civic Chorale, a community ensemble whose season includes collaboration with the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra. Collaborations for the 2014-2014 season include performances of Handel’s Messiah and Carl Orff’s Carmina Burana. An active clinician and adjudicator, he has served in festivals across the United States. This year will take him to Kenya, New York, Florida, and around the state of Texas. During his time at Tarleton choirs have toured to Fort Worth and Dallas, and this year will take the Chamber Choir to Houston in April and Japan in May.

Before coming to Tarleton, Dr. Robertson was Assistant Professor of Music Education at Ithaca College in Ithaca, New York. He served for several years as choral director at East Gaston High School in Mount Holly, North Carolina. While at East Gaston, his choruses performed in festivals in North Carolina, earning a reputation of excellence and superior ratings. The choruses traveled to Florida, Virginia, and New York for performances that included two appearances in Carnegie Hall. Dr. Robertson taught alongside Trip McGill as co-conductor of the Gaston County Choral Ensemble. He also served as associate conductor of the Charlotte Oratorio Singers and Charlotte Chamber Singers, choral ensembles affiliated with the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra. In that capacity he assisted in the preparation of large and small-scale choral-orchestral works for conductors Christof Perick, Scott Allen Jarrett, and Alan Yamamoto. Dr. Robertson holds degrees from Florida State University, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and Drexel University.“
BRIAN K. DOYLE (Director of Bands) joined the Crane faculty in 2006. He conducts the Crane Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Band, and also teaches courses in conducting. A Michigan native, he received all of his degrees in his home state. At Michigan State University, he received a BME and two MM (saxophone and wind conducting) degrees. His principal teachers included John Whitwell, Joseph Lulloff and James Forger. At the University of Michigan, he received the AMusD in Wind Conducting under the mentorship of Michael Haithcock. Dr. Doyle’s former teaching posts include faculty positions at Indiana University, The University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill, Duke University, and as a public school music educator in Imlay City, MI. While in North Carolina, Dr. Doyle served as the resident conductor of the Triangle British Brass Band from 1999 until 2002. Dr. Doyle has also served on the summer conducting faculty of the renowned Interlochen Arts Camp, as well as the New England Music Camp. Dr. Doyle now spends his summer as the conductor of the Crane Youth Music Wind Ensemble.
